The Spinning Wheel of Life

The twirling four year circle accelerates and lags at all different points of the high school game. Freshmen grab the rungs and push hard as four quick annual cycles flash by. The bell sounds and graduation arrives; the winners step up to receive the grand prize, diplomas. As Senior contestants clear the platform towards new games, Freshmen grab the rungs and push hard . . . spinning the wheel.

It's not whether you win or lose . . . but how you play the game

The well-practiced games at North Attleboro High School are played by the athletes of the sports division. Day after day, drops of sweat, chains of commitment, smiles of agony, tears of accomplishment represent the pieces with which athletes advance towards final, timeless victory. Illusion is only to look at the glory, while insight is to look behind it.

Go to the Head of the Class

Mysterious and elusive mind games, better known as "academics", introduce the most common complexities, and often, perplexities of student existence. Run-on sentences and misplaced adverbs may scream for correction. Dead frogs in lab trays stare aghast at the scalpels. Historical characters may keep making the same mistakes repeatedly. Monster, mile-long Math problems may trigger wild and scary nightmares. Though students sometimes stagger, the problems are endured and conquered. Each class opens new rules of the game and more knowledge to play with, hurdling towards a better understanding of life.

Let the Games Begin

The anxious audience of parents, teachers, students, and interested onlookers hushes while focusing attention on the stage at the front of the theater. The Drama Club stage crew snaps on the spotlights. Suddenly, music swells from the pit where the North Attleboro High School Band fills the air with a catchy show theme song. The Video students swing cameras toward Hon- or Society members. Entering through the brightly, skillfully painted set designed by creative young artists from around room 116, the contestants ready their minds for the series of questions on various subjects. Questions on all important topics range from cooking to Biology, sewing to history, Physical Education to English, the Arts to Trigonometry. The anticipation mounts as the audience, band, and contestants wait for the games to begin.

Secretary: Allyn Grantham, Vice-President: Bob Miller, Treasurer Dawn Hasslebaum and President Patrick O'Connor.

Senior Class History

1985 brought about 200 wide eye, innocent students to the halls of North Attleboro High School. All of us were ushered into the theatre where we received the annual lecture by Mr. Pickering and Mr. Whitty. To some, being a freshman was just another year in school, except in a different place. To others it was a nightmare, one which kept them up all night the night before. After about a week of trying to find the swimming pool on the third floor, we all settled into a routine. The class chose Mark Laviano as our first president; Nicole Aussant, as Vice-President; Brook Laurence, secretary and Paul LeGendre, treasurer. Mr. Aussant served as our class advisor. Like most freshmen, we won first place in the Homecoming float, had the usual fundraisers, and survived the last official year of hazing by the upperclassmen.

Sophomore year, advised by Mr. Aussant, brought four new officers. Serving as president was Dawn Hasslebaum; Vice-President, Lisa Fowler; Secretary Jen Foster and treasurer Kim Charn-ley. Representatives to the student council included Holly Desmarias, Gwen Floyd, and Sarah McKinnon. The high hopes from freshman year faded as the days went on. The first big event was the float competition at Homecoming. The interest wasn't as high as freshman year but on November 9, a thing of beauty emerged from Bob Miller's garage. The float, however, didn't appeal to the judges and placed third. The officers tried with futile attempts to raise money in the low treasury, but the car washes and dances were cancelled at the last minute, and class dues did not boost it that much. It was a long and interesting year, one which was filled with a lot of upsets and tragedies. By April, most wanted to start next year with a clean slate.

Junior year was entered with more enthusiasm. We finally made it over the bridge, upperclassmen now. The class was under the direction of Mr. Aussant, and Miss Lechner. The class officers were Mark Laviano as president; Ed Cochrane vice-president; Lisa Desrosiers, treasurer, and Lisa Guillette, secretary. The student council was Nicole Aussant, Paul LeGendre and Holly Desmarias. Early that year, a car wash and a bake sale was held. Again Bob Miller donated his garage for the building of the float. The float received a second place at the homecoming game. The powder puff football team suffered the agony of defeat, losing to the undefeated Senior Sharks. Spring brought the prom, held in the self-decorated King Philip ballroom in Wrentham. The rain did not stop the evening, and the night turned out to be a great success. The junior year had been a successful year, but all of us wanted to be seniors.

Looking back a few months in our senior year, most of you are probably wondering where it all went. The class officers were President, Patrick O'Connor; Vice-President, Bob Miller; treasurer, Dawn Hasslebaum; and secretary, Allyn Grantham. We held tradition and built our last minute float in Bob Miller's garage, but like most seniors the attitude behind the float wasn't what it was freshman year. So this homecoming game we watched the freshman come in first, like always and watched our float get the last place award. But hey, there were other things on our minds than winning a float competition. There were colleges, scholarships, SAT's and the powderpuff football game. We had to leave the school with at least one win in the series. Fortunately we received that luxury, with a defeat over the junior jets. The fundraisers were a huge success. The black and white dance along with the class dues brought us to the Providence Marriot for our prom. It was cold, but the night was a huge success. The big surprise this year was King Bob Miller, with Queen Lisa Fowler. This year is ending a huge success both academically and athletically. Senior year is almost over. In a few more days we will be leaving the sheltered world we've lived in and become adults in the real world. Congratulations to all of you that made it and good luck in the years to come.

Nights in white satin

The class of '89 held their Senior Prom at the Providence Marriott. After much discussion they decided on the prom theme "Nights in White Satin" by the Moody Blues. The music was supplied by Goldie's Visions of Paradise. By an almost unanimous vote the class of 1989 had the first King and his court. The Seniors enjoyed their night together and a fun evening was had by all!!!

Jay Beckett and Lisa Delaurier have a great time at the prom.

The first North's Kings court looks thrilled at their special honor.

Class of 1990

The 1988-1989 school year was an enduring journey for the class of 1990, NAHS's Juniors. We have great resources in our classmates and they displayed their prominence once they passed the half-way mark of their high school careers.

Our float committee was headed up by one of our more dynamic Juniors, Kim Dyer. She held numerous meetings and created enthusiasm among the class, not an easy job.

Our float took 3rd place in the judging but I heard the uproar of angry fans demanding it get the gold. We were proud to be represented by Kim Dyer and Nicole Simoneau for the Homecoming Ceremonies.

Junior Jeff Kraskouskas was spurred on by our homecoming reps to lead the Big Red to a 34-12 victory over the Panthers. Our Prom is looking to be very successful. It is billed as something like Club MTV. The D.J. explained his lights, video screen and soundsystem. It promised to make you remember that exciting night at the Taunton Regency for a lifetime.

The treasurer, Greg DeMattos, has his hands full (let's hope his pockets aren't) with money received from car wash income at the Junior High, the Powder Puff game and the basketball concessions. John McCloskey and I have enjoyed serving as best we could all year long; he as vice-president, and I as the Junior Class President. We say "Goodbye" to the Seniors and wish them luck after High School. We will emulate them as best we can in the year to come.

"When I'm with you"

On April 22, 1989 our Junior Prom was held at the Taunton Regency Hotel. The music was provided by a D.J. and the evening was highlighted by the announcement of the queen and her court.

The eight members chosen were Lynn Macaione, Michelle Cloutier, Cindy Drotts, Nicole Simoneau, Julie Wallis, Sarah Drought, Debbie Allen, and Barbara Fellman. Kimberly Dyer was selected as our Prom queen. Souvenirs for the evening included compacts and key chains, which will serve as reminders of an unforgettable evening.

Class of 1991

We started our Sophomore year with high hopes. As President we elected Derek Herber as our fearless leader who would guide our class through our second year of high school. Other class officers were Vice-president, Andrea Ockey, Secretary, Amanda Foley, and Treasurer, Kristin Farrell.

Our true North spirit however, was shown when our float took third place at homecoming. So it wasn't a gleaming first place victory! It is common knowledge that the number one spot is always reserved for the Freshmen class. What better way to boost their morale. After all they must still contend with silent studies, which have now been placed very far behind us.

With stricter health and gym requirements upon us we had little time for any electives. We did have time however, for the Freshmen/Sophomore Social.

As our year comes to a close we look forward to our last years at North High. Most of all we look forward to climbing another rung on the ladder and becoming an all-powerful Junior class.

Class of 1992

Our Freshmen year began with much enthusiasm. Our class officers were; President Ryan Poirier, Vice-President Danielle Bourbeau, Treasurer Stacey Bliss, and Secretary Jennifer Hale. We were represented on the Student Council by Amber Trudel and Korrey Barrs, which helped the class a great deal.

At Homecoming, we showed our North spirit by winning first place with our float "Panthers Choke On Rocket Smoke"

During the year, we organized a school-wide canned food drive to help the homeless and we had a car wash that was quite successful.

We hope as Sophomores to remain an active and vital class, and show our enthusiasm for our remaining three years at North.

Freshmen Sophomore Social

The Freshmen- Sophomore Social was held on Dec. 9, 1988 in the Cafeteria. For the first time it was held between both the Freshmen and Sophomore classes. The evening consisted of dancing and a catered meal. Pictures with dates and friends also took up much of the evening.

Everyone enjoyed themselves and seemed to think that a dance between the classes was a good idea. The dance was certainly more popular than last year's which had only included Sophomores.

ARE YOU
GAME
FOR THIS?

Sports are games we all can enjoy. Set aside the mind games. Let us show you what the student body in North Attleboro High can do. Our games of the fall were things we never dreamed of, but there we were in Sullivan Stadium. Our winter games were great, and our Spring games were Super. Tennis was on track, baseball and softball were strong and track had many stars. Our sports at North show many of our students stepping from the classroom to the locker room to play these games with dedication and enthusiasm.

Rocketeers Superbowl Bound

The 1988-1989 Red Rocketeers, led by captains Matt Slaney, Marc Robichaud, and Ed Cochran finished a fantastic season with a record of nine wins and two losses. The team went to the Superbowl at Sullivan Stadium in a rematch with Foxboro.

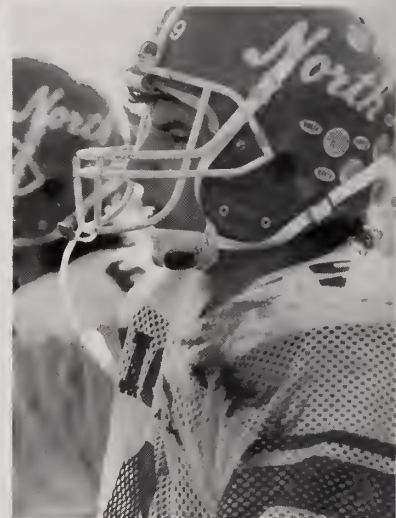

Both games against Foxboro proved to be the most exciting for the fans and for the team. Both times North put up a strong fight, losing only within the last few minutes of the game.

Besides these matches with Foxboro, North had little trouble with their other opponents, including Attleboro at the annual Thanksgiving game. North demolished the Bombardiers with a score of 40-6 and Tom Eliason and Marc Robichaud received the distinguished Balfour Trophy.

The Sun Chronicle All-Stars from North included Matt Slaney, Marc Newport, Jeff Kraskouskas, Neal Beaupre, and Marc Robichaud. The Hockomock League All-Star honors were awarded to Matt Slaney, Marc Robichaud, Marc Newport, Ed Cochran, Lance Lamborn and Neal Beaupre. The Boston Globe Division III selections included Marc Newport and Ed Cochran.

The winning tradition will hopefully continue under the leadership of the three newly elected captains; Phil Slaney, Randy Silvestri, and Jeff Kraskouskas.

Another championship season

The 1988-89 Red Rocketeers Basketball Team finished surprisingly well with a 16-6 record which met or even exceeded pre-season expectations. The last third of the season proved to be somewhat disappointing due to inconsistent play, but regardless the team captured its second straight Hockomock League Co-Championship trophy.

North started the season off on a disappointing note losing in the Holiday Tournament championship in Attleboro. Senior Co-captain Jim Kentros was selected to the All-Tournament team.

The Rocketeers were led all season by their dependable starting five of Seniors Daryl and Brian Rodriguez, Junior Greg Walsh and Co-captains Jim Kentros and Jon Mikulis. The team clinched its fourth straight Eastern Mass. tournament berth, but were beaten by Duxbury in the quarter finals.

Jon Mikulis and Jim Kentros were selected to the Sun-Chronicle All Star Team as well as being selected All Hockomock League.

Next Year's team's future looks bright under the leadership of captains Peter Cragan and Greg Walsh as well as returning head coach Mike Babul and assistant coach Scott "Lochology" Lockwood.

Girl's fine season

The Girl's Basketball season ended too soon this year with a loss to Westwood at Westwood, 57 to 34, but it was no indication of the fine season, 16 wins-5 losses. Captained by Senior Cindy Bliss with only 5 Seniors, but seven Juniors the team is once again looking forward to a strong season.

Both Deidre Robichaud and Julie Schmidt, Sophomores, were voted All-Hockomock as well as Sun Chronicle All-Stars.

The team voted as most-improved player, Nicole Dowgiala, most valuable player, Julie Schmidt, most contributing player, Cindy Bliss, and the Paul Fernberg Coach's award went to Erin Buckley. Coach Debbie Dalton was very pleased with her season and knows that Coach Forbes had a strong J.V. team that should help her out next year.

Baseball's swinging season

The Baseball Team can be proud of a winning season, 11 to 9 overall. Coach Guthrie considered this to be one of the best teams he's coached, missing the play-offs by one game.

Jason Worthington, considered by the Sun Chronicle as one of the most improved players in the Hockomock League, took a regular shift in left field and pitched in 7 games. He compiled a 3-1 record with a 3.78 ERA and 21 strikeouts. Jason along with Tom Eliason were named Sun Chronicle All Stars. Tom Pitched and played first base. He batted .306 with 11 RBI's, stroking 22 hits including a team-leading 8 doubles.

A strong Junior Varsity team coached by Don Johnson should lead strength to the team next year.

VARSDITY TEAM: Ed Cochrane, Eric Yankee, Sean Ganley, Tom Eliason Jason Worthington, Barry Gaumond, Jim Kentros. Back row, Asst. # Softball: surprising season

Coach Jo Sizemore stated "the surprising play of the youngsters was the key to the team's successful season." The Rocketeers' infield of all non-seniors produced three all-stars; Julie Schmidt, Barbara Fellman, and Michelle Cloutier. Julie at 1st base, Barbra at Short Stop, and Michelle at Third base.

Dee Robichaud, a Sophomore Center fielder, was also placed on the Sun Chronicle All-Star Team. Dee hit a team-high .458, good for second in the Hockomock League.

Erin Buckley, Senior pitcher, Rocketeer captain and MVP, gave up only 70 hits in 118 innings this year and had an .89 ERA. She allowed just six extra-base hits (five doubles and a triple) on the way to a 16-4 record. She also notched a save. She struck out 75 and walked 16. She also hit .300. This was Erin's second straight season as a All-Hockomock selection.

Coach Sizemore stated: "I knew from the moment I gave her the ball as a Junior that she would be the key to any success we might have. She took us to the final eight of Division 1 the last two years and the final 4 as a Sophomore."

Coach Sizemore was also selected Sun Chronicle All-Star Coach, a great honor.

Cross Country

The Boy's Cross Country Team cruised to a 7-1 record overall in the Hockomock League under the new direction of Coach Bob Guthrie. Led by Senior Captain and league all-star Gary Gardner, Senior Keith Housman, and Junior Brian Lacasse, the Rocketeers made a strong showing, losing a couple meets by only a few points. Coach Guthrie looks forward to a more successful season next year. Brian Lacasse was elected captain for the 1989 season.

Girl's Cross Country

Coached by Dwight Estey, the Girl's Cross Country team completed an excellent season with a record of 7-0.

They won the dual meet championships and the Hockomock Championship for the first time. Competing in the South Shore Principals Meet, they captured 1st place with a victory over Notre Dame. The team was led by co-captains Marion Grantham and Dawn Hasselbaum and also newcomer, Lynn Liberatore. Dawn, Lynn and Kristin Hanley were selected All Hockomock and Lynn was also selected All Sun Chronicle. The 1989 captain is Kristen Hanley.

Great comeback season

BOY'S SPRING TRACK: The 1989 Spring Track team finished the regular season with a 5-2-1 overall record. This was respectable due to a 0-2-1 start. Led by Coach Dwight Estey and captains Peter Cooke and Brian Rodriguez, the team took first place in the South Shore Principal's and made respectable showings at the Hockomock League meet (4th with 62 points), J.J. Kelley Relays (2nd with 70 points) and the State Relays (5th with 30 points).

All Hockomock League selections included Mark Newport, Jon Mikulis, and Brian Rodriguez. All-Sun Chronicle selections included Brian Rodriguez and Mark Newport.

The team hopes to continue earning respect throughout the league with the help of 1990 captains, Peter Cragan, Mike Garrow, and Brian La Casse.

Girls Spring Track

The girl's outdoor spring track did well this season. We had three all-stars: Senior Marcy Merigold, Junior Aimee Morrison, and Sophomore Lynn Libertore.

Marcy Merigold scored 139 points this spring giving her three executive seasons of 100 points or more. Marcy placed fourth in the high jump while she competed in such events as the triple jump, 330 low hurdles, 400 and 4x440 relay events.

Marcy, the Rocketeers' Captain was voted most contributing for the second straight year by her teammates.

Aimee Morrison was one of the top high jumpers this spring. She was third at the league meet and fifth at the Class Meet with a leap of 4-10.

Aimee was the league champ in the high jump during the indoor season. She also competed in the triple jump during the year.

Lynn Libertore completed her sophomore with a sixth place showing in the two mile at the state meet, where she recorded a 11:45.8.

Lynn broke the school record in the two-mile with a time of 11:37

This has been an impressive season, one which we hope we can repeat next year.

Field Hockey fun

The N.A.H.S. 1988 Field Hockey Team, coached by Dot Soufy and Deb Dalton, finished with a record of 6-10-2. The team was led by Senior captains Karen Lake and Erin Buckley. With only 6 seniors this year, Coach Soufy felt it was "a rebuilding year." Coach Soufy is also "really looking forward to next year." Some outstanding players were Sophomore Deidre Robichaud, and seniors Erin Buckley, Jen Foster, Nicole Aussant, Sarah Mandell and Lisa Desrosiers. Next year's captains will be Sara Drought and Kim Dyer and they are hoping to have a very strong team.

Junior Varsity Team:

The N.A.H.S. Golf Team had a good, but disappointing season in the fall of 1988. Missing the State tournament because of a tie in the last match of the season, the team hopes to return to the tournament in 1989. Led by co-captains Mark Laviano and Brian Rodriguez, the team suffered many close and disappointing losses.

With Senior Ken Dumas playing #3 man and with three newcomers filling out the rest of the line up, Coach Art Nunes had both experience as well as inexperience to deal with. Even though the team did not prove to be as successful as 1987, both Laviano and Rodriguez were repeat All Hockomock League selections, with Laviano being named a co-captain as well as winning the annual Hockomock Individual Tournament.

With a lot of hopeful underclassmen returning, the future looks bright for Golf at N.A.H.S.

The North Attleboro Wrestling team showed a great deal of improvement in one year. Under the guidance of Coach Steve Laskey, North posted an 8-10-2 record in this second season. The highlight of the year was a 35-33 win over Sharon avenging a loss and a tie earlier in the season. Aside from the team's success, certain wrestlers achieved personal victories. Senior Eric Yankee, Junior Dana Kirby and Freshman Neal Gouck each placed in the top four at the Sectional Championships earning each a spot at the State Tournament. Dana Kirby and Shad Blake were chosen for the All Hockomock team while Dana, Neal and Greg Demattos were named to the Sun Chronicle All Star team. At seasons end special awards were presented by Coach Laskey. They were given to Dana Kirby who was chosen M.V.P. of the team; Shad Blake who was voted unsung hero; Bob Shinn was named most improved; and Eric Yankee for sportsmanship and dedication. Dana Kirby and Greg Demattos were named as captains for the 1989-1990 season.

Volleyball builds

This year the Girl's Volleyball Team was building toward success all season. We lost the first few but won a great number towards the end of the season, so many that they only missed the State Tournament by one game. They were lead through this great season by Coach Marchand Captain of Varsity Marcy Merigold and Junior Varsity Captain Margie Gagne. Next year we hope to make it to the states and with more players we can do it.

Volleyball players went to Heritage day at the Junior High to convince more girls to participate in our program. Leslie Newport will captain the team next year with many of the girls going to Roger Williams College for Volleyball camp.

Gymnastics flips

The 1988-89 Gymnastic Team, captained by Judi McQuade and Christine Gagiolo, finished the season with a 2-9 record. The team looks forward to next year with the loss of only four seniors: Renee Farrugia, a vaulter, Jill Morrison, a vault, bars and beam competitor, Chris Gagiolo, bar and floor competitor, and Judi McQuade, top scoring all around competitor who received honorable mention in the Sun Chronicle's All Star team.

Team awards went to Courtney Dumas for most contributing and Chris Gagiolo was voted Most Improved.

The 1989-90 team has a good future in store with returning Coach Cindy Arnold. Jean Clinton and Amy Palmquist will captain the team.

Soccer soars

The 1988 Red Rocketeers, captained by Matt Keyes and Frank Pasquel, recorded the best record ever, finishing the regular season 10-5-2. The season set some milestones with the most wins in a single season, most shut-outs with the help of a great defense and goalie Randy Spencer, and being the first team ever to qualify for the State Tournament. The offense was led by Frank Pasquel, Aaron Ryder, Bob Miller and Nick Patalano. The defense shined with goalie Randy Spencer, sweeper Troy Campbell, Stopper Tom Mitchell, and fullbacks Kevin Boynton, Greg Larson and Tom Klarwasser. The halfback line proved to be the backbone of the team. It was controlled nicely by Matt Keyes, Jim Kentros and Tom Mitchell once again were chosen Sun Chronicle All-Stars.

Tom Mitchell and Frank Pasquel were chosen "Hockomock League All Stars" and Jim Kentros and Tom Mitchell once again were chosen Sun Chronicle All-Stars.

Coach Ben White is about to face a rebuilding year in 1989 with only three seniors returning after graduating 12. With the help of newly elected captains Bill Blake and Troy Campbell this rebuilding year will surprise some of the unsuspecting competition.

Tennis: Finest Season

Tennis was back for North Attleboro in 1989. The boys had their finest season in over a decade. The team compiled an 11-7 regular season record, finishing fourth in the Hockomock League and they made the State Tournament for the first time since 1979's undefeated team. Led by Coach John Wood, Senior Captain Ken Dumas as well as the All Star doubles team of Tony Bertino and Gary Richards, the boys managed to jump off to an impressive 7-3 start. Playing in one of the toughest leagues around, the team of 1989 accomplished all its goals they set out to do, and despite a 4-1 loss to Falmouth in the first round of the States, a strong feeling of success and pride will be left for the next decade of Tennis at N.A.H.S.

Girl's Tennis "Loves Aces"

The Girl's Tennis program is alive and well at North. Missy Peterson set a school record this year as a Junior, undefeated at #1 going 19-0. Missy was named a Hockomock League All-Star as well as the Sun Chronicle All Star team. Linda France, a Senior, was also named to the Sun Chronicle All-Star team.

Melanie Herald teamed with Regan Cunningham to play #1 Doubles and were named to the Hockomock All Star team. Linda France and Missy Peterson were named Most Contributing, while Sue Clarkin and Correy Barrs were named Most Improved. Coach Marcia Carman was honored by being named Sun Chronicle All-star Tennis Coach.

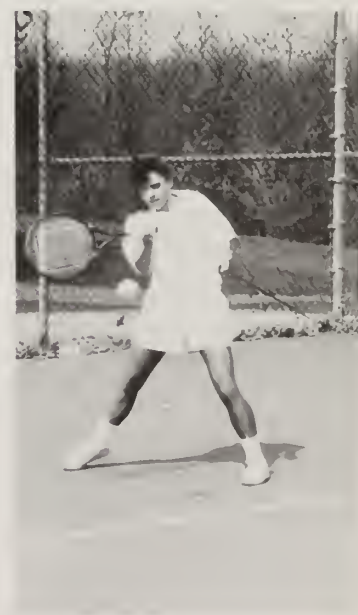

Next year's team should be just as strong if not stronger since only 2 seniors are leaving. Missy Peterson will captain the Tennis team for 1990.

Boy's Indoor Track

The '88-'89 Indoor Track Team had a season full of noteworthy accomplishments. There were many great individual performances but the team just couldn't put them together. Consequently, the team ended the season 3-3.

The team was led by co-captains Peter Cooke (600) and Gary Gardner (2 mile). Also, Rick Johnson was the dominant hurdler in the Hockomock, while Keith Houseman was one of the best in the mile. The weight crew was led by Neal Beaupre and Mark Newport. As the team looks to the future it will be captained by Rick Johnson and Mike Garrow.

Girls Indoor Track

This year's team featured a very balanced team with no individual stars. As a unit they were very successful. Nicole Aussant, Dawn Hasselbaum, Karen Lake, Julie Schubnel, as well as the Grantham "triplets" led the way for the underclassmen. Amy Morrison and Marion Grantham became All Hockomock as well as Sun Chronicle All Stars. The Team was proud of their 4-1-1 season.

Cheerleaders '89

Cheering season began in the early summer. The soccer squad, captained by Holly Desmarais and Jill Kieltyka, won awards for unity and congeniality. At U.C.A. Camp at Amherst College, the football squad, captained by Judi McQuade, won a number of superior and excellent ribbons. They also won a trophy for best all-around squad and a first place trophy for their pom-pom routine. Mrs. Patti Johnson and her team had an exciting season ending with the great thrill of cheering at Sullivan Stadium in the Superbowl.

The J.V. squads were coached by Rachael Trudel and Rita Boutin coached the soccer and basketball squads.

The competition squads captained by Judi McQuade and Eileen McDeed had a very successful season due to great coaching by Patti Johnson and a lot of help from Carl Mitchell. After 3 months of hard work they entered their first competition at Smith Academy, placing 3rd. They also captured 3rd place at Chicopee and 6th place at Clark University. At Bartlett High School they won a trophy for most creative and imaginative.

"DEAD"-ication

We, the class of 1989, wish to dedicate our yearbook to Mr. Robert Aussant. He has been a great deal more than just our class advisor. We would like to thank him for his years of fine teaching, his encouragement to all class members, his extra hours of guidance and help. Not every person shows us what dedication means, at least not as well as Mr. Aussant has been able. Therefore, we thank you for everything you've done for us and we hope, as we leave North, we'll make you proud of all of us.

Activities, they say, build character, but who says they can't be fun, too? At North, "activities" means "awesome"! There's a different activity for your every mood — Art Club for your creative side, Band for when you feel like being loud, or The Galadriel for when you'd like to express yourself in writing. Involvement in extracurricular activities provides students with newfound leadership potential, the opportunity to work alone or as a team, and most importantly, good times and excitement!

Senior Sharks sink their jaws into the Junior Jets

Though the class of 1989's Jet stream was muffled in their Junior year they came back for the kill in their Senior year.

Coached by Matt Slaney, Neal Beaupre, Steve Johnson, and Dave Hartford, the Senior Sharks knocked the wind out of the Junior Jets in a 6-0 win.

The coaches of the Junior Jets were "sharked" when the Seniors scored in the last ten seconds of the game.

Although the Senior Sharks didn't dominate the Junior Jets they swam off the field victoriously in the Junior girl's sweat.

North spirit shines through for the homecoming game

The annual Homecoming Football game was held on November 5, 1988 at North Attleboro High School. The Rocketeers were set for a show-down with Franklin.

The parade prior to the game included floats from the Freshmen class, coming in first; the Juniors coming in second; the Sophomores placing third; and the Seniors coming in fourth with "Spirit".

At the Spirit Rally the day before, the Homecoming Queen and her Court were announced. The Queen this year was Kristin Capucino. Her Court included Senior members Dawn Hasselbaum and Kim Charnley, Juniors Kim Dyer and Nicole Simoneau, Sophomores Marisa Albertini and Laurie Phipps, and Freshmen Erica Marshall and Carolyn Haun. Also this rally consisted of an ice cream eating contest which Mark Newport won, coming out with a sticky face.

The Rocketeers ended the day with a winning score of 34-13. It was all capped off with the distribution of our yearbook in the School's lobby to all alum's at Homecoming.

Mr. Johnson delivers his poignant speech. Judi McQuade enthusiastically shows her poms-pons.

Kim Charnley trips after gracefully knocking over the megaphone.

Once more the Freshmen show their North spirit with this prize winning float. Matt Slaney gently kisses Dawn Hasselbaum while he hands her a rose.

The freshman class patiently waits while the remainder of the students file in.

Tony Bertino's team struggles to a first place win in tug-of-war.

The cheerleaders pump up the excitement at the rally.

Drama starts season off with murder

This year was a big success for the Drama Club. The officers were elected to lead us through this year and Ed Zonfrillo (President), Barbara Griffin (Vice-president), Kim Flanagan (Secretary), Allyn Grantham (Scribe), Dave Hancock (Treasurer), Dana Ashworth (Senior Rep.), Chris Frost (Junior Rep.), and Maggie Edwards (Soph. Rep.), did a wonderful job.

We started off the year with "Murder on the Nile" which, although not as successful as we had hoped, was a lot of fun to perform.

The Student Directed One Acts this year consisted of "The Truth", written and directed by D. Matthew Ashworth, "Uncle Duncan's Delusion", directed by Ed Zonfrillo, and "After Margritte", directed by Chad Winship. Awards were presented to the following; BEST PLAY: "Uncle Duncan's Delusion"; BEST ACTOR: Chris Frost; BEST ACTRESS: Christine Perotta. Distinguished performance awards were given to Paul Alix (acting), Ed Zonfrillo (directing), J. Casey Lippmeier (acting), D. Matthew Ashworth (writing, directing, and make-up) and Chad Winship (acting).

We took the winning play, "Uncle Duncan's Delusion" to the State Competition where we competed against 5 other schools. Paul Alix was awarded ALL STAR CAST for his portrayal of Uncle Duncan.

Drama Club Officers: Edward Zonfrillo, Kim Flanagan, David Hancock, Barbara Griffin, Dana Ashworth, Allyn Grantham, Christopher Frost.

Gang violence comes to North High

The Spring musical "West Side Story", with a cast of 47, brought many new faces out onto the stage. Both performances having been sold out, "West Side Story" was our biggest success this year.

Many new things were done this year. This was the first year ever that the International Thespian Society members received jackets. T.A.S. (Theater Arts Supporters) raised the money through fundraisers such as the Dance-a-Thon and the bake sale. Also, after much persuasion, Mr. McDeed allowed the Drama Club to sponsor and chaperone a dance at the Junior High.

International Thespian Society inductions were held on May 26th. New inductees were; Paul Alix, Cindy Anderson, Michelle Barnes, Kris Bates, Jen Gaouette, Tammie Grenon, Claudine Holdgate, Kyle Host, Kim Joubert, Erin Kimbrel, Stacie Kimbrel, Ami Newbury, Erik Reuter, Keri Schumm, and Ted Treanor.

The elections for 1989-90 brought new responsibilities to the 3 representatives and even started a new office. The votes went as follows: Kim Flanagan, President, Chris Frost, Vice-president, Tammie Grenon, Secretary, Ami Newbury, Scribe, Erin Kimbrel, Treasurer, Jason Fuller, Senior Rep. and head of make-up, Jackie Greco, Junior Rep. and head of props., Dave Jewell, Soph. Rep. and head of costume dept. and our new office— Technical Officer— is held by Cindy Anderson.

The play "Harvey" was elected as our Fall play for 1989, with auditions in September and performance in November.

Dawn Hasselbaum surprised everyone in her performance attire.

Dana Ashworth speaks a few romantic words to Christine Burns.

Chris Frost gets beat up by the nasty Sharks.

Sarah Mandell watches the guys, wishing they would involve her.

Jason Fuller and his fellow Jets join together in verse.

A last scream of horror comes out of Rob Reuter as he is stabbed by Ed Zonfrillo.

Dana Ashworth calmly argues with his rival, Ed Zonfrillo.

Paul Alix, as well as some other Sharks call the Jets chickens.

Sarah Mandell tries to be cool relaxing with some Jets.

The Jets and their girls dance the night away until the Sharks arrive.

Rob Reuter doesn't want anyone to mess with him; he's not in the mood.

Art expresses true feelings

The Modern Art Club of 1988-1989 was comprised of a group of unique, creative individuals. The officers were elected in September of 1988 as Adrien Knowles President, Cindy Grantham vice-President, Aaron Ryder and Scott Paris as Co-Treasurers and Mark Powell as the Secretary.

The year included several fund raisers, including a candy sale in October, a car wash in November and a flower sale for St. Patrick's Day. Although all the fund raisers were successful, we fell short on savings for the annual trip to New York. However, with the money we've made and the reputation we've gained we hope that the members in the years to come will profit.

The Latin Club ends another successful year

This year the Latin Club involved themselves in many things, beginning with the election of officers. Those elected were President, Gwen Floyd; Secretary Lynn Grantham; Treasurer Sharyn Hallal and class representatives Scott MacLeod, Laura Moscato, Dominic Pacelli and Jay Livingstone. The first event, held in October, was a Halloween party. This gave the underclassmen a chance to get to know the upperclassmen, and the upperclassmen a chance to get to know the underclassmen as well. The annual bake sale which is held the day before Thanksgiving turned out to be quite successful. The Christmas holiday began with the traditional slave auction, during which selected Latin Club members became slaves to their winners for one week.

In March was the club's first field trip. The Latin classes II, III, and IV went to Brandeis University in Boston for a day of tours and seminars. In April the Latin classes I and IV took a day out of school to go to the Boston Museum of Fine Arts.

Students honored with awards

On May 4, 1989 many students were awarded for their academic excellence at the annual Awards Assembly. Following the introductions to the assembly, given by Paul LeGendre, Mr. Whitty presented the Academic Awards. Cindy Tremblay and Lisa Desrosiers were announced valedictorian and salutatorian for the class of 1989. The Brown Book Award was awarded to Nicole Rickard; the D.A.R. Good Citizen Award to Dawn Hasselbaum; the Century III Award to Allynn Grantham; and the Smith Book Award to Jennifer Buteau. The American Bicentennial Inaugural Youth Leadership Award was presented to Patrick O'Connor; the Galadriel Award to David Hancock; the Commended students merit scholarship to Matthew Keyes and Robert Reuter; and the Northern Light Yearbook Outstanding Theme Award as well as the Northern Light Yearbook First Place by size category Award was received by Karen Blanton.

Introduced to the podium, Mr. Pickering announced the various Math and Science Awards. The Rensselaer Medal for Math/Science and the Bausch and Lomb Junior Science Award were presented to Jo Sias; the Math League Certificate of Merit to Stephen Fong; and the Math League Certificate Merit and American H.S. Mathematics Exam Winner to Ken Dumas. The Science Fair Awards were presented by Mr. Vito; the Humanities Awards by Mrs. Thibault; the Theatre Arts Awards by Ms. Cobb; Business and Occupational Education Awards by Mr. Slowe; and the Physical Education Awards by Mr. Estey. The students who have achieved Highest Honors at least once in the 1988-89 school year were recognized for their achievement and also the new Honor Society members were introduced. All of the awards presented were well earned by the students and much appreciated.

Valedictorian, Cindy Tremblay, and Salutatorian, Lisa Desrosiers, are presented their awards by the Dean of Students and the Principal.

Model Senate and Math League have fun with law and numbers

The 1989 Hockomock Model Senate was held at Canton High School. Our delegation consisted of five Freshmen, three Sophomores, and four Seniors. Sarah Mandell chaired a committee while others debated their bills. Jen Buteau's bill on legalizing drugs was second on the floor; after a wild debate it was defeated. Advisor Mr. Vincent Baldasaro is confident for next year's conference.

The math league team finished second in Bristol County during 1988-89 year. Using a format which allowed students to participate whenever available, the team had various members. A test was given once a month for thirty minutes and consisted of six questions. The top five of each contest were submitted to the league office.

The top scorer of the year was Stephen Fong and the leading senior was Ken Dumas. Among other students doing well were Paul LeGendre, Roger Joyal and Jon Mikulis. Ken Dumas was also a winner in the annual New England Mathematics Exam taken in January. North is hopeful that the success will continue in 1989-90.

On April 24, 1989 twenty-one N.A.H.S. students, along with three advisors: Robert Albertini, Russel Benson, and Ginny Benson, began a week long tour of the artistic and historical country of France. The tour was begun in Paris- "The City of Lights". There they were introduced to the Metro System, the Eiffel Tower, Notre Dame, Champs Elysees, Montmartre, and the Centre Pompidou among other exquisite sites. Eating baguettes for breakfast and shopping with francs became second nature to the group. Traveling south in an overnight express train brought the group to Avignon, Nimes, Arles, and Aix-en-Provence where history, culture, and beauty dominate. Next, the famous Cote d'Azur, the Riviera, revealed such glamorous cities as Cannes, Nice, and the Principality of Monaco. Before heading home, the group experienced a drive through the beautiful Aosta Valley and the Monte Blanc tunnel ride of the Alps. The last night was spent in Geneva, Switzerland before departing on April 22nd in time to start classes on the 24th.

Student Government takes charge

Under the supervision of Mr. Duncan Grey, the Student Council had another successful year. The officers were Nicole Aussant, president; Paul LeGendre Vice-president; Kim Dyer, secretary; Jeff Nally, treasurer; Mark Croteau, sargeant-at-arms; Lynn Liberatore, corresponding secretary. In November the Council sponsored the Homecoming activities. In December once again pictures were taken with Santa Claus. That was a huge success and the money raised was donated to the Santa Fund. The Father-Daughter dance was held in January, while carnations were sold for Valentine's Day and Daffodils were sold for Easter to raise money for the Cancer Society.

Thanks to Mr. Grey the 1988-89 year was a big success and it is felt that the officers and reps' for next year will continue to be successful.

The 1988-89 student advisory council consisted of five students: Lynn Liberatore, Phil Slaney, John McKloskey, Kim Charnley and Gwen Floyd. Out of these five members Gwen Floyd was chosen to be the student representative on the school committee. A monthly meeting was held on the second Wednesday, where the students had their chance to voice the opinion of themselves and fellow students about any problems in the school, the issues brought up were, having french fries in the cafeteria during lunch and coffee in the senior break room; only one of which could be accomplished.

Representing the regional student advisory council were Sarah Mandell and Bob Miller. They had monthly meetings at various schools in surrounding towns. At these meetings they would break into large groups and go to lectures about student rights.

Academic competitions

College Bowl members: John McCloskey, Karen Lake, Chris Dinitto, Allen Bruce, Paul LeGendre, Jen Buteau

Chris Dinitto, a predominant member of the College Bowl. John McCloskey, an enthusiastic member of the College Bowl.

Jen Buteau, a positive force of the College Bowl team.

Karen Lake, a dominating force on both the College Bowl team and Citizen's Bee.

Citizen's Bee members: Keith Darling, Bob Shinn, Chris Martin, Karen Lake

The 1988-1989 Academic Bowl finished with a 4-8 record and a total of 1567 points. The team was headed by Senior Karen Lake and consisted of Seniors Paul LeGendre and Chris DiNitto, Juniors Jen Buteau and John McCloskey and Sophomore Allen Bruce. This year North was a member of the Southeastern Academic Bowl League which consisted of Foxboro, Franklin, Oliver Ames, and Taunton. Along with these opponents North competed against Brockton and Randolph of the South Shore Academic Bowl League. With half of this year's team being underclassmen, North hopes to have a strong team next year.

On March 4th North Attleboro High sent four students to the First Mass. Regional Citizenship Bee. The students who participated were Keith Darling, Karen Lake, Christopher Martin, and Bob Shinn. We were advised by Mrs. Frutchey. The event was held in Fall River. A citizenship bee is similar to a Spelling Bee except questions are asked about history, current events, and Economics.

All of the members of our team made it to the finals, but none of us made it to the final six, that go on the the State bee. Better luck next year!!!

Science booms at North

When competing in a Science Fair competition, one must be judged, and when this day of judging ends, one sentence is commonly heard, "Thank God, it's over!"

North Attleboro had its fourth annual school science fair on Dec. 14, '88. Judging was done by faculty and organized by the "three wise men", Dr. Duluk, Mr. Vito, and Mr. Gray, the Science fair coordinator. About 50 students completed a science project, and out of these fifty, seventeen walked away with awards. The overall winner of the School Science Fair was Marion Grantham.

After the School Science Fair, all was not finished for North. Six students went on to represent the school at the Region III Science Fair at Bristol Community College during the weekend of April 1st. North Attleboro dominated the Fair, capturing two honorable mentions, two second places, and a first place.

The success didn't stop at the Regional Fair. Five students (Scott McLeod, Allyn Grantham, Marion Grantham, Elizabeth Larner, and Ryan Poirier) represented North at the 40th Annual State Science Fair held at M.I.T. during the weekend of April 27th.

North Attleboro made a name for itself at this fair with Ryan Poirier winning an Honorable Mention, Elizabeth Larner winning a second place, and $250 from the Coalition for Reliable Energy, Scott Macleod winning a first place and $750 from the Massachusetts Dental Society. Allyn Grantham earned a first place and an expense paid trip to the National Youth Science Camp while Marion Grantham was awarded first place and a trip to Lawrence Berkeley Labs. in Berkeley, CA.

The science fair award winners patiently listen to Mr. Vito's speech.

Students learn about the "real" world

This year Mrs. Young's Adult Living Class had a chance to see what "real Life" was like. The class learned about planning meals and balancing budgets. The class also learned about the responsibility of having a child. In a week-long experiment, each member of the class had to treat a doll as if it were a real baby. The students had to remain with the "baby" 24 hours a day, meaning they had to take it to each of their classes and to constantly hold it. The members of the class were only allowed a sitter one night out of the seven. Many of the students felt "it was a learning experience." One student said, "I never realized how much time and energy it takes to care for a child full-time. I couldn't do anything or go anywhere because I had to watch my baby all the time."

The class ended the year with a mock wedding. The bride and groom were Donna Solari and Glenn Auclair. Michelle Chagnon and Frank Pasquel played the maid of honor and the best man. The rest of the wedding party consisted of Al McCrae, Chad McKenna, Chris Pereira, Chris Lavelle, Kim Charnley and Kim Colvin. After the ceremony the wedding party and invited guests attended an outside reception and fun was had by all.

Alcohol and drug awareness emerges at N.A.H.S.

The North Attleboro High chapter of Students Against Driving Drunk (S.A.D.D.) experienced the most productive year ever. It was under the leadership of Mr. Don Johnson and Senior Co-Presidents Bob Miller and Cindy Bliss.

S.A.D.D. initially met in September and watched various films, had "contracts for life" signed, and set up four committees to distribute tasks evenly.

The publicity committee, under Jameela Samma; the Junior High committee chaired by Gwen Floyd; The Contract committee under the leadership of Neal Beaupre; and Cindy Grantham lead the art committee.

Major events performed by S.A.D.D. were ordering shirts, bumperstickers, and pins to be used at a fund raiser. Also a select number of students attended a S.A.D.D. sharing day at Southwood Community Hospital. Another group put on a presentation for the Parent Advisory Council. For the Proms, business cards were made up portraying the S.A.D.D. logo and a message. These were delivered to local florists, tuxedo shops. Lastly, Bob Miller and Cindy Bliss appeared on Cable T.V. and conducted an interview explaining the importance and benefits of having such a prominent organization.

With continual enthusiasm and under the direction of such a strong advisor, S.A.D.D. will continue to prosper and continue to be a useful and worthy group.

This year sixteen students signed contracts stating they were substance free and would remain that way throughout their Peer Education Experience.

The students were required to participate in sixteen hours of training, after school, for two weeks.

After those two weeks, they were on their own, the adventure began. It was the first Peer Education program ever in N.A.H.S.. At the end of eight months they had presented the program to three elementary schools and the Junior High on Heritage Day.

Student leaders go the distance

The physical education leaders are a friendly group of seniors who choose to help out the physical education teachers as well as the students. They devote one period of their time each day carrying out their leadership responsibilities such as; leading warm-up exercises, taking attendance and refereeing games. Their dedicated time is much enjoyed by the teachers and underclassmen.

Literary Staff and Staff Aides have their work cut out for them

This year was extremely successful for our literary magazine, Galadriel. We began the year with a record high attendance of 25 people at the first staff meeting. The staff remained the highest one we've ever had.

Galadriel also changed its format. For the first time, the covers of the two issues were in color.

In the Spring, our advisor, Mr. Benson, and seven staff members attended the 41st annual New England Scholastic Press Association Conference at Northeastern University. Here, we received an award for "Highest Achievement".

The office, guidance, nursing and media aides are students in the High School who volunteer their free study periods to help out the faculty. It's a great opportunity for the students to become more familiar with the school and it's functions, as well as other students and faculty members. The time and effort given by the students is greatly appreciated by the faculty.

New technology emerges

The North Star got off to a rather slow start this year, but after floundering for awhile it did eventually begin to gain some momentum.

Michelle Wright passed on editorship to John McCloskey in the middle of the year. With a solid group of core reporters and editors, and some new recruits next year there is some hope that the paper will do well during the 89-90 year.

With continued support from the faculty and administration, the paper could become a vital staple in the school community.

Band/Chorus

Not only was the 1988-89 music season brand new, but so was the director. Stuart Britton welcomed the music students with open arms during the last few days of summer vacation: BAND Camp! Britton renewed the students spirit by using new methods and ideas to get the season rolling.

Football season brought about a new challenge for the Marching Band. Every other week, the musicians learned new music and a new field show. Each new show was performed for two games; one home, and one away. There was also a new drum major appointed for each show. The drum majors were Heidi Byers, Nancy Boltz, Rich Labedz, Rob Reuter, and Chad Winship. With their hard work and dedication they ended the football season with their best show in the Super Bowl, in spite of the bitter cold.

At the conclusion of the football season a number of performances were added to the schedule. They included many parades and concerts in elementary schools, Nursing Homes, and Quincy Market in Boston. But who could forget the outstanding performances at both the Christmas and the Spring Concerts. Along with the Concert and Marching Band, the newly formed Jazz Chorus and Auxillary Corps dazzled the audiences as did the many talented soloists throughout the season, which included the production of "West Side Story".

All the hard work and dedication payed off when the music department and selected Drama Club members spent a fun filled weekend in the heart of New York City. Major attractions included the Statue of Liberty, Radio City Music Hall, the United Nations Building, Lincoln Center, and the Broadway performance of "Cats". This trip would not have been possible without the help of the Band Parents Organization, which held many fundraisers including car washes, a Dinner Dance, and the ever famous Poinsettia Sale.

The year ended with an Awards Banquet which was held on May 30, 1989 at Folans Restaurant. Many students were awarded jackets, letters, and Band ribbons. Senior plaques were awarded for four years of music participation. The Academic Music Award was awarded to Stacie Kimbrel, and the John Phillip Sousa Award was presented to Heidi Byers.

The officers for this outstanding year were Stacie Kimbrel, President; Heidi Byers, Vice President; Tara Murphy, Secretary; Tom Marshall, Treasurer; and Nancy Boltz and Tim Carr, Librarians.

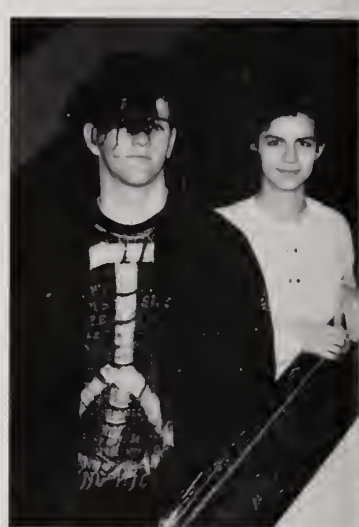

With almost half of the Music department now graduated, Mr. Britton faces having to rebuild the program once again.

Honor Society grows

The National Honor Society enjoyed a productive year under the leadership of first year advisor, Mrs. Cornelia Kulczyk. A craft fair opened up the year and was the most lucrative fundraiser.

The five officers and Mrs. Kulczyk attended the leadership convention of the Southeastern Massachusetts National Honor Society at Bridgewater State College and were able to meet several other chapters.

The Honor Society also welcomed 13 new Juniors and 6 new Seniors, who were inducted on November 3.

In the Spring, several members participated in a telethon which raised over $2000 for the American Heart Association. A teacher appreciation day was also sponsored by the Honor Society to honor and thank the faculty members.

The Seniors ended a busy yet exciting year with a hair raising white water rafting trip. President: Paul Legendre Vice President: Laura Prescott Treasurer: Jon Mikulis Secretary: Sharyn Hallal Publicist: Barbara Griffin

Chicken Dance big hit with Dads

The fifteenth annual Father Daughter Dance was held on Saturday, January 21, in the High School cafeteria. The evening was sponsored by the student council and featured a catered dinner and music by Positive Image. Once again the highlight of the evening proved to be the famous "chicken dance".

Yearbook has tough act to follow

The 1989 Northern Light began eagerly in September with a rather large staff. Our advisors for their first year were Mrs. Patricia Lush and Mrs. Jill West.

After many decision-making afternoons we came up with our theme, "Are You Game . . . For This?" Besides our advisors, our staff was made up of Editor-in-Chief Karen Blanton, with co-editor Jen Desilets. Our editorial staff consisted of Lisa Guillette and Beth Blackburn, Faculty Section, Gwen Floyd and Chad Forbes, Activities, Bob Miller and Judi McQuade, Sports, Sarah Mandell and Aaron Ryder put together the Senior Section and last but not least Michele Ala was in charge of the underclassmen.

A special thanks to Dan Smith our representative from Jostens as well as Chestnut Hill Studios, in charge of our photography. Thanks to everyone who put in their extra time and made this book possible.

Senior cookout/softball game

In a change of pace this year, the class of 1989 held a cookout rather than the traditional pizza party. On Thursday June 1, the seniors ventured out into the warm sunshine for some food and fun. After eating hamburgers, hot dogs, and chips, the seniors could play their choice of games: volleyball, football, soccer, or frisbee. Then came two student-faculty softball games, where the faculty triumphed both times. Despite this fact, the students enjoyed themselves and said that this was a welcome change over the pizza party.

Senior Reception

On Wednesday, May 13, the Class of 1989 held its annual reception at the Mansfield Sheraton. The Seniors ate dinner together for the last time. After dinner, the parents arrived to receive the Seniors in the reception line. Although they were anxious to get this over with, the Seniors enjoyed meeting each other's parents, and receiving words of congratulations. Then both parents and students enjoyed all-night dancing. Many students enjoyed this moment more than the prom. The night topped off four great years at North Attleboro High School.

Class Night

The Class of 1989 had their Class Day on Friday, June 2. They presented their class will to the underclassmen and then presented the Senior Slide Show.

Later that evening they did it again for parents and friends. Here the history, will, and slide show were presented along with many awards. Selected students to read essays; Cindy Tremblay, Dawn Hasselbaum and Lynn Grantham. Mr. Whitty presented Principal Awards to students making honor role for all four years. Theses students were Paul LeGendre, Laura Prescott and Cindy Tremblay. Mr. Pickering presented the President's Academic Fitness Awards to gifted students. Dawn Hasselbaum was the receipient of the Merle B. Crockett Award, presented each year to a student for service to class, school, and community. Senior-Editor-In-Chief Karen Blanton and Faculty Editor Lisa Guillelte dedicated the 1989 Northern Light to Mr. Robert Aussant. The program concluded with the vocal section, "The Way We Were".

Following the ceremony, the Seniors and their guests were invited to the cafeteria for refreshments.

A "hot" Graduation

The 101st graduation exercises for the class of 1989 were driven indoors by the threat of rain, which finally came at the end of the ceremony. This was the class' second indoor graduation, as it rained in 1985 when they graduated from junior high school.

A sea of red and white gowns flowed into the gymnasium to the tune of "Pomp and Circumstance." After the Pledge of Allegiance, led by Class President Patrick O'Conner, Vice-President Robert Miller welcomed parents and friends alike to the ceremonies.

Lisa Michelle Desrosiers delivered the salutatory address, "A Step Abroad." In it, she described her recent trip to France, telling her audience that many things can be learned from our friends across the Atlantic.

Members of the graduating class sang a vocal selection, "The Way We Were," by Marvin Hamlisch.

Valedictorian Cindy Tremblay spoke on the "Educational Aspects of Life," where she stressed the need for a good education and charged the class to take pride in their own education.

Superintendent of schools William L. Kelly introduced the commencement speaker, Dr. David William Christianson. He spoke on the importance of science and why it should be appreciated. Also, Dr. Christianson gave details on his experiments with DNA. Dawn Hasslebaum and Allyn Grantham presided over the presentation of awards: Mr. Pickering presented Athletic cups, given annually to students excelling in sportsmanship, leadership, athletic skill, and scholarship. After addressing the audience on current events, Mr. Whitty awarded many scholarships to students.

School committee chairman Francis Leary Jr. presented the long awaited diplomas to the graduates. Concluding the program, selected students sang the class ode "Wings of Yesterday," written by Dana Matthew Ashworth.

The members of the class of 1989 will now spread their wings in different directions, proving that they are "Game For This."

Do you remember . . . .

Chris Payette threw jello at Pat and it dried on the wall Freshman year.

The train trip to Florida, "And the train goes beep".

The time Jim Dufault broke his leg and when he finally came back to school he got stuck in the elevator.

Suzanne Spoltore was carried into the boys bathroom by John Pinkam, Tony Cavaleri and Tim Killroy.

Gail Wilkie tripped over the football pads in front of the whole freshman football team.

The first time you wore makeup?

At the Jr. Prom and all of Mar's bows kept falling off and we had to keep picking them up?

Roland Alix fell asleep at McDonald's?

Bonnie Feeney and Lisa Fowler changed one of Lisa's grades in Mrs. Paton's first grade class.

When Noelle Chace wore sneakers every day for weeks?

Ed Zonfrillo dragged his stuffed animal dog around school for a whole day?

Jill Morrison falling asleep everyday in Mr. Ausant's anatomy class during a filmstrip.

Holly, Tara, Renee, and Ian - 4 hours to get to the beach! Hey, Holly, which exit do we take? Weymouth? Where's Weymouth? OOPS!

Gwen Floyd's relationship with Brad Blackburn?

When Barry Gaumond beat Mark Newport at musical chairs?

Bob Miller, Prom King, wore a Burger King hat.

We never paid for a photocopy in all four years we were here.

Nassim Rizvi walked through the girls locker room the first day of school Freshman year.

Brian and Daryl Rodriguez got into a fight and got two days out-of-school suspension sophomore year.

The bandtrip to Washington D.C. and the room of Stacie Kimbrel, Gwen Floyd, Lisa Guillette, and Barbara Griffin. Such fun!

Kim Arseneau did in the Media center.

Ken Dumas got Easter flowers in homeroom as a joke and he thought it was serious?

Lance Lamborn got his fingers caught in the desk in Jr. High.

Everyone stranded at the JFK Library and Glenn and Frankie were the heroes?

Cheryl Muir's cow was kidnapped and there was a 10 spork ransom?

Jen, Beth, Gail, and Karen's horrible prom picture pose?

When Allynn Grantham walked in to get taped and six or seven football players were changing. Some Naked. Oh No!

Remembering those favorite sayings like "You look GREAT", "Who do you think you are", "Say it, come on Say it."

All those days Karen kept saying "OH MY GOSH, I am so far behind I have yearbook and so many things to read in English, and I'm never going to get it done."

Emerald Square

"The Food Court," this is where you will be able to buy a variety of foods.

1989-a time we have waited all these years for. We've been working hard, saving money for that time in our lives for a North Attleboro Mall!

It stands three floors high with over one hundred stores planned. Some definite stores are J.C. Penney, G-Fox, Sears, Limited Express and a possible Filenes. Although not opening till around August 12th the class of 1989 and classes to come will probably be employed there. Working and spending their time and money on food fashion and fun.

A winding stairway going from the top floor to the bottom floor.

Watch for the neon blue sign above "The Food Court."

An escalator going from third floor to second floor.

A long view of the mall.

"Looking awesome with Emerald Square Mall!"

Working for a living

Most upperclassmen work saving their hard-earned dollars for school and car insurance. Underclassmen work also to save for a car and a occasional outfit.

It may be difficult at times with homework and exams scheduled for the next day, but it teaches us responsibility and what the "real world" is like. "Like they always say, you can't get something for nothing".

Right Column: Bert at Wamsutta, Lisa working hard at Bliss and Lauren at Papa Ginos

Going for the splurge

"Thank goodness for the weekends. Let's see what shall I do tonight."

Even though North Attleboro isn't the best town providing entertainment we always seem to find someplace to spend our money.

A lot of us will be found at Triboro Cinemas seeing the latest releases. Or maybe at Bliss or McDonald's for a shake. Once in a while a rockin' concert or an exciting circus for a change. Sometimes, the money just seems to disappear. Just as working is a part of the real world so is the joy of spending money and learning to spend it wisely.

Dave Roever, a proud American

Dave Roever a man who believes in true love, religion and a everyday smile.

Drafted when he was eighteen, he married his wife and sadly was sent to vietnam. Being injured by a hand grenade, he learned many things during his tragic moments.

Peer pressure will sometimes cause you to do things that you may regret. "Everything has consequences, whether good or bad", Roever said. He is against suicide, drinking and driving and disrespect to women. Roever says that a relationship should be built on the front seat of respect not in the back seat. "You should love someone for whom they are because that's love in the first degree." Before leaving Dave Roever left us with this thought . . . "Out of every tragedy comes a triumph when you just won't quit and you hold on to what you believe in". (Karen Blanton)

Ads, where would we be without advertising? Our ads, sold by volunteers and the Honor Society, provide money for the staff of the NORTHERN LIGHT to design award-winning yearbooks for you, the student body. Ads help our local businesses, too, by giving them a broad forum to promote their products, while giving them a good feeling of aiding the business leaders of tomorrow, the youth of today. We would like to thank these local businesses for their support and interest in our publication.
